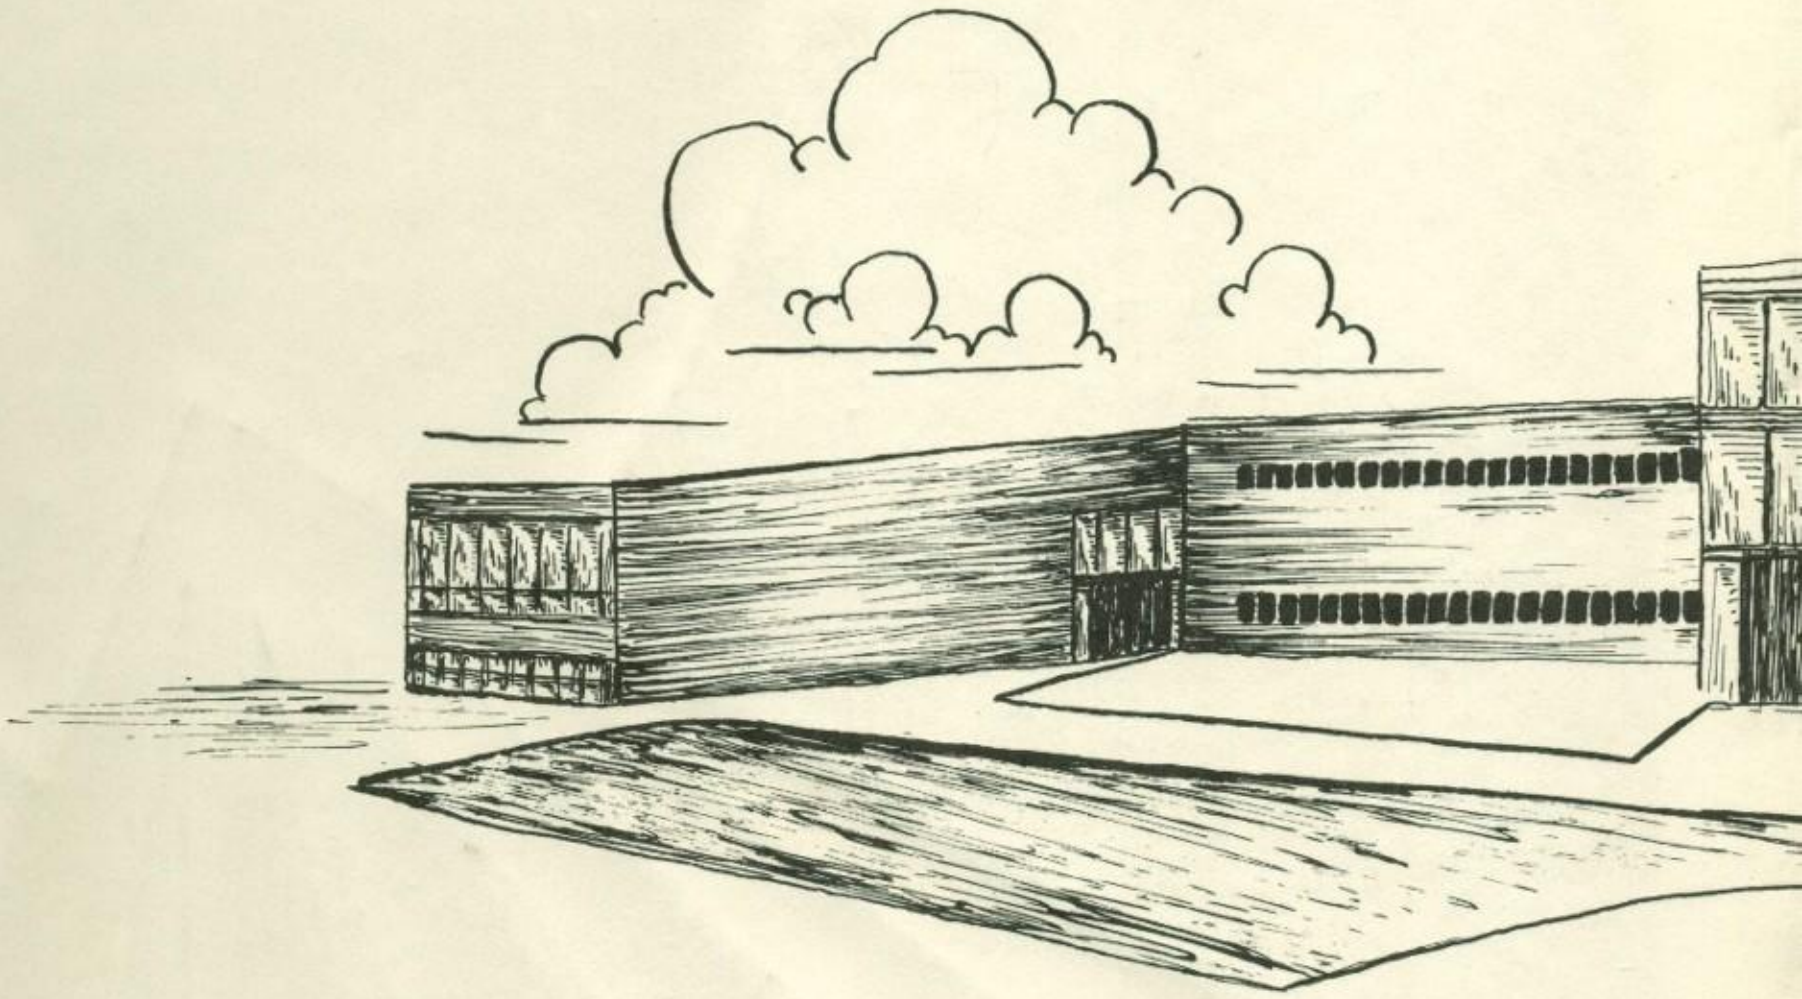
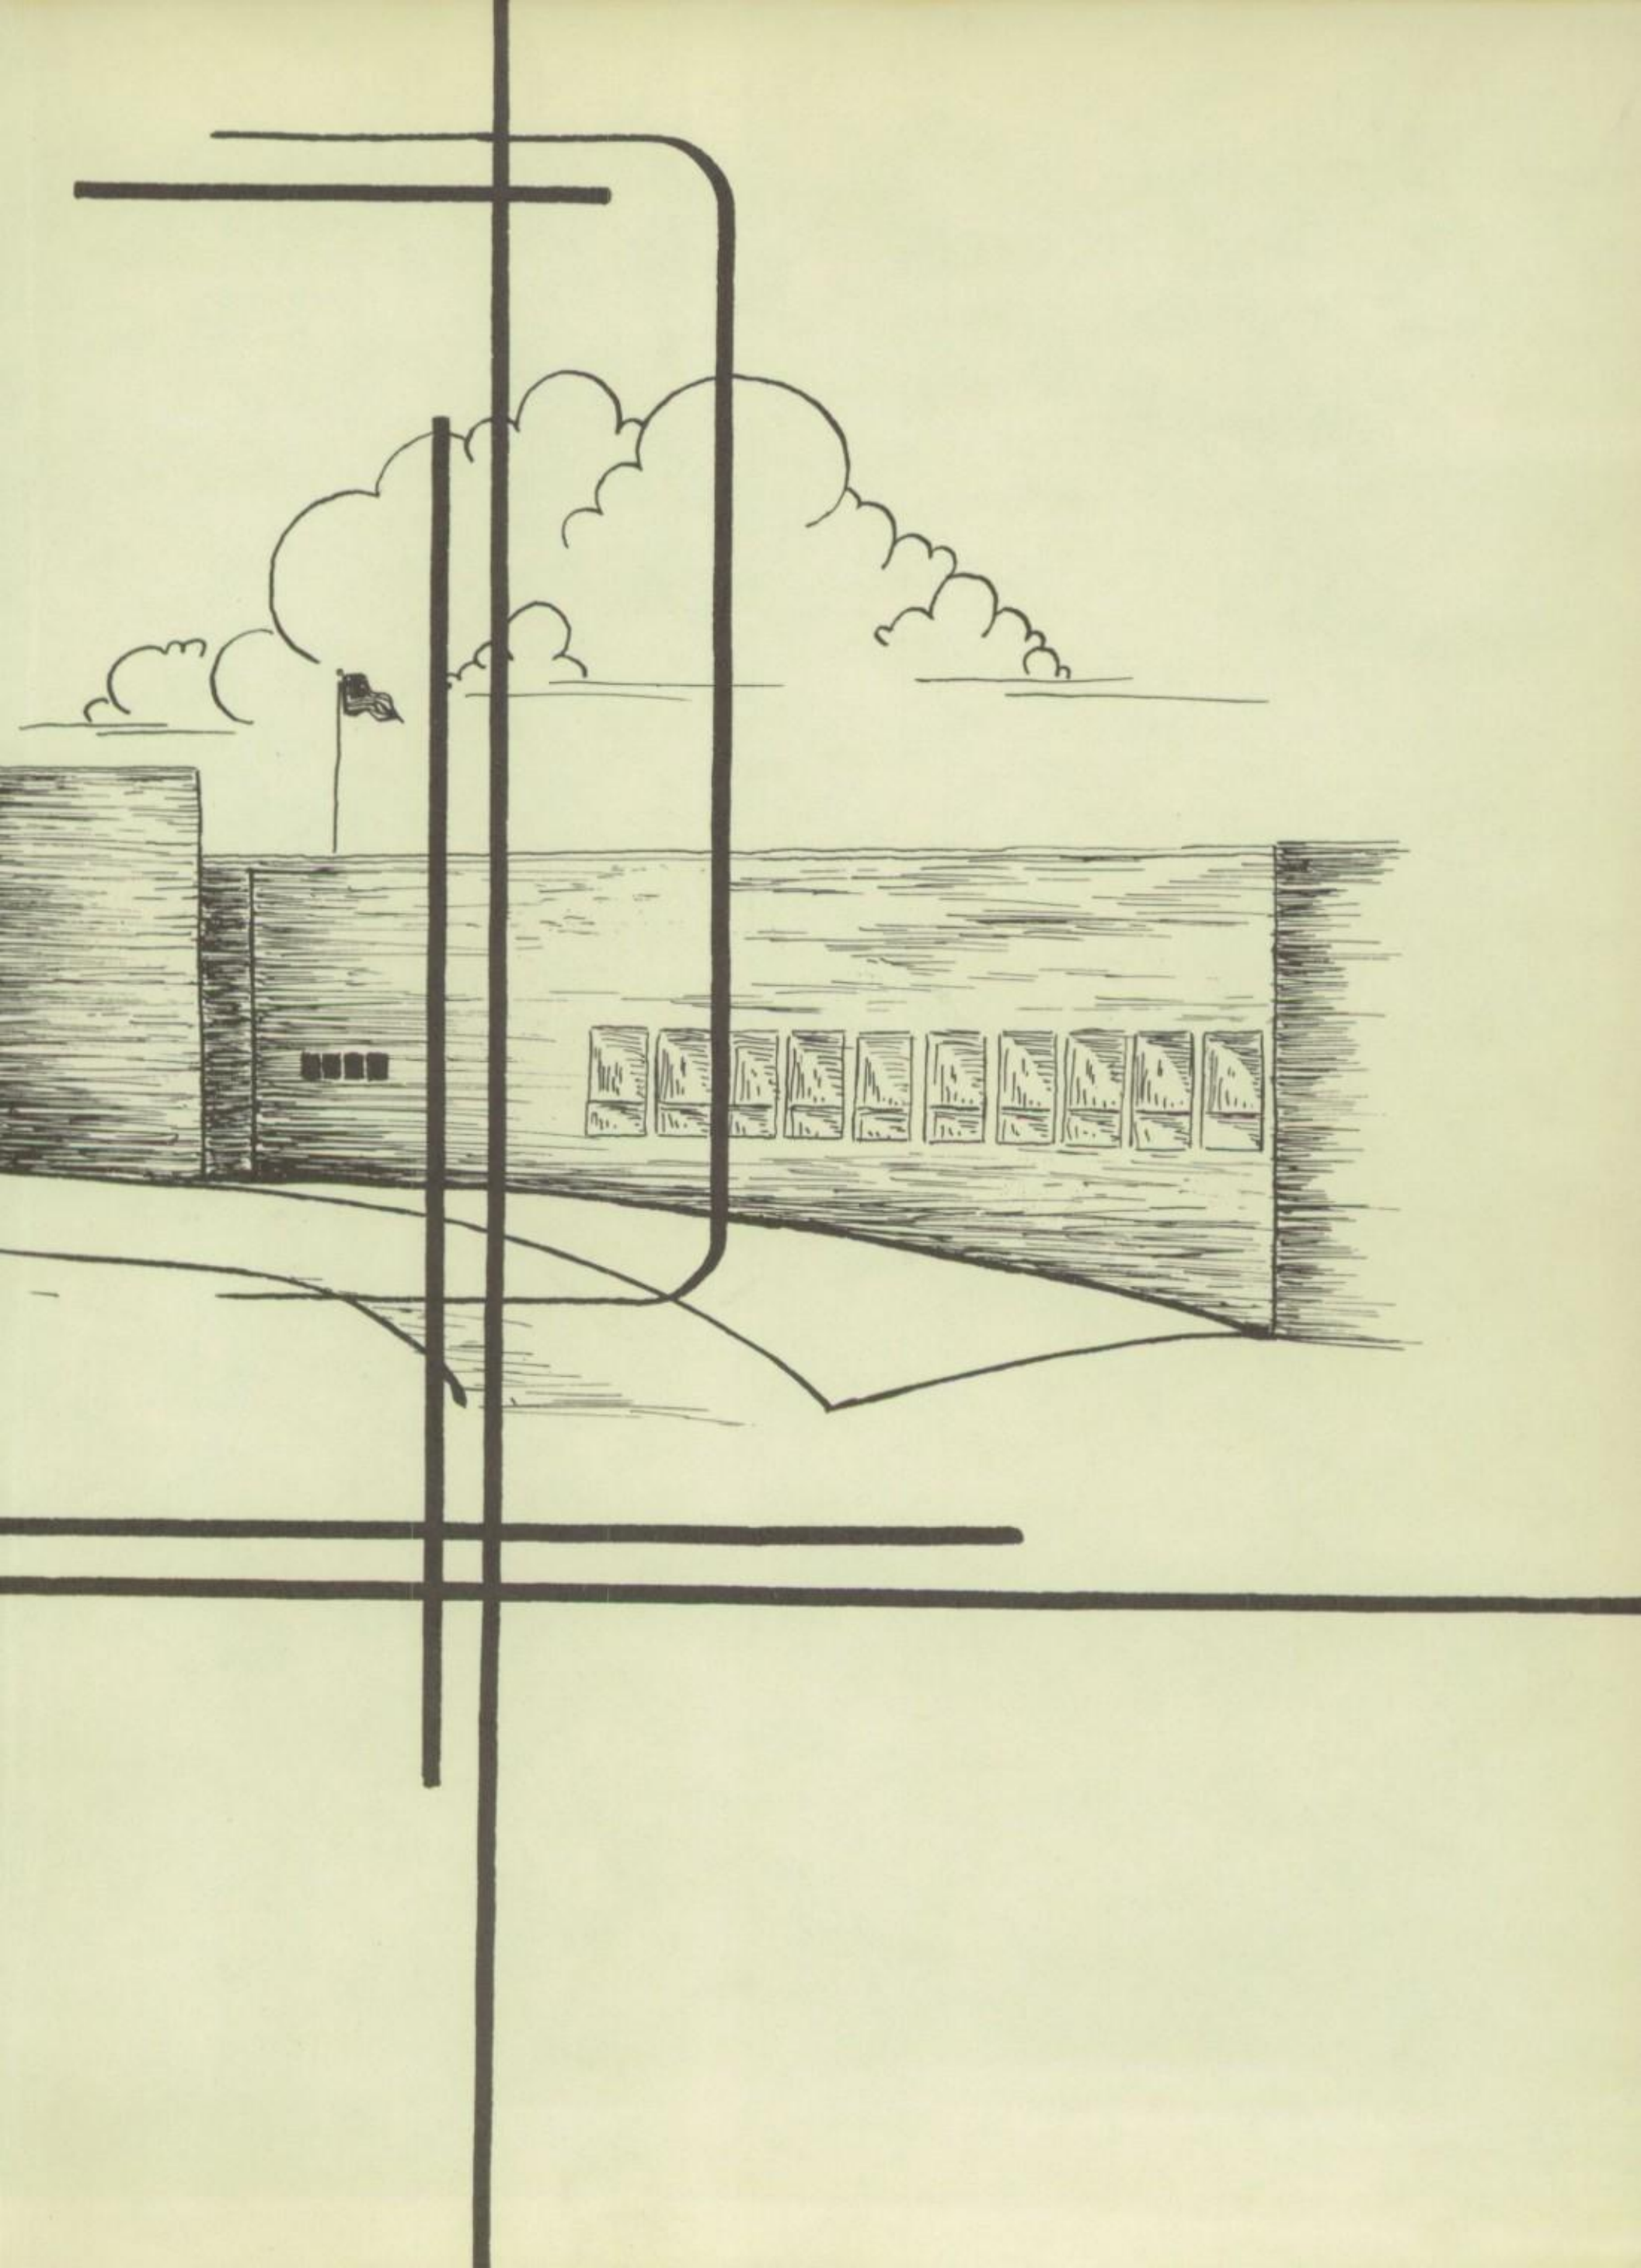
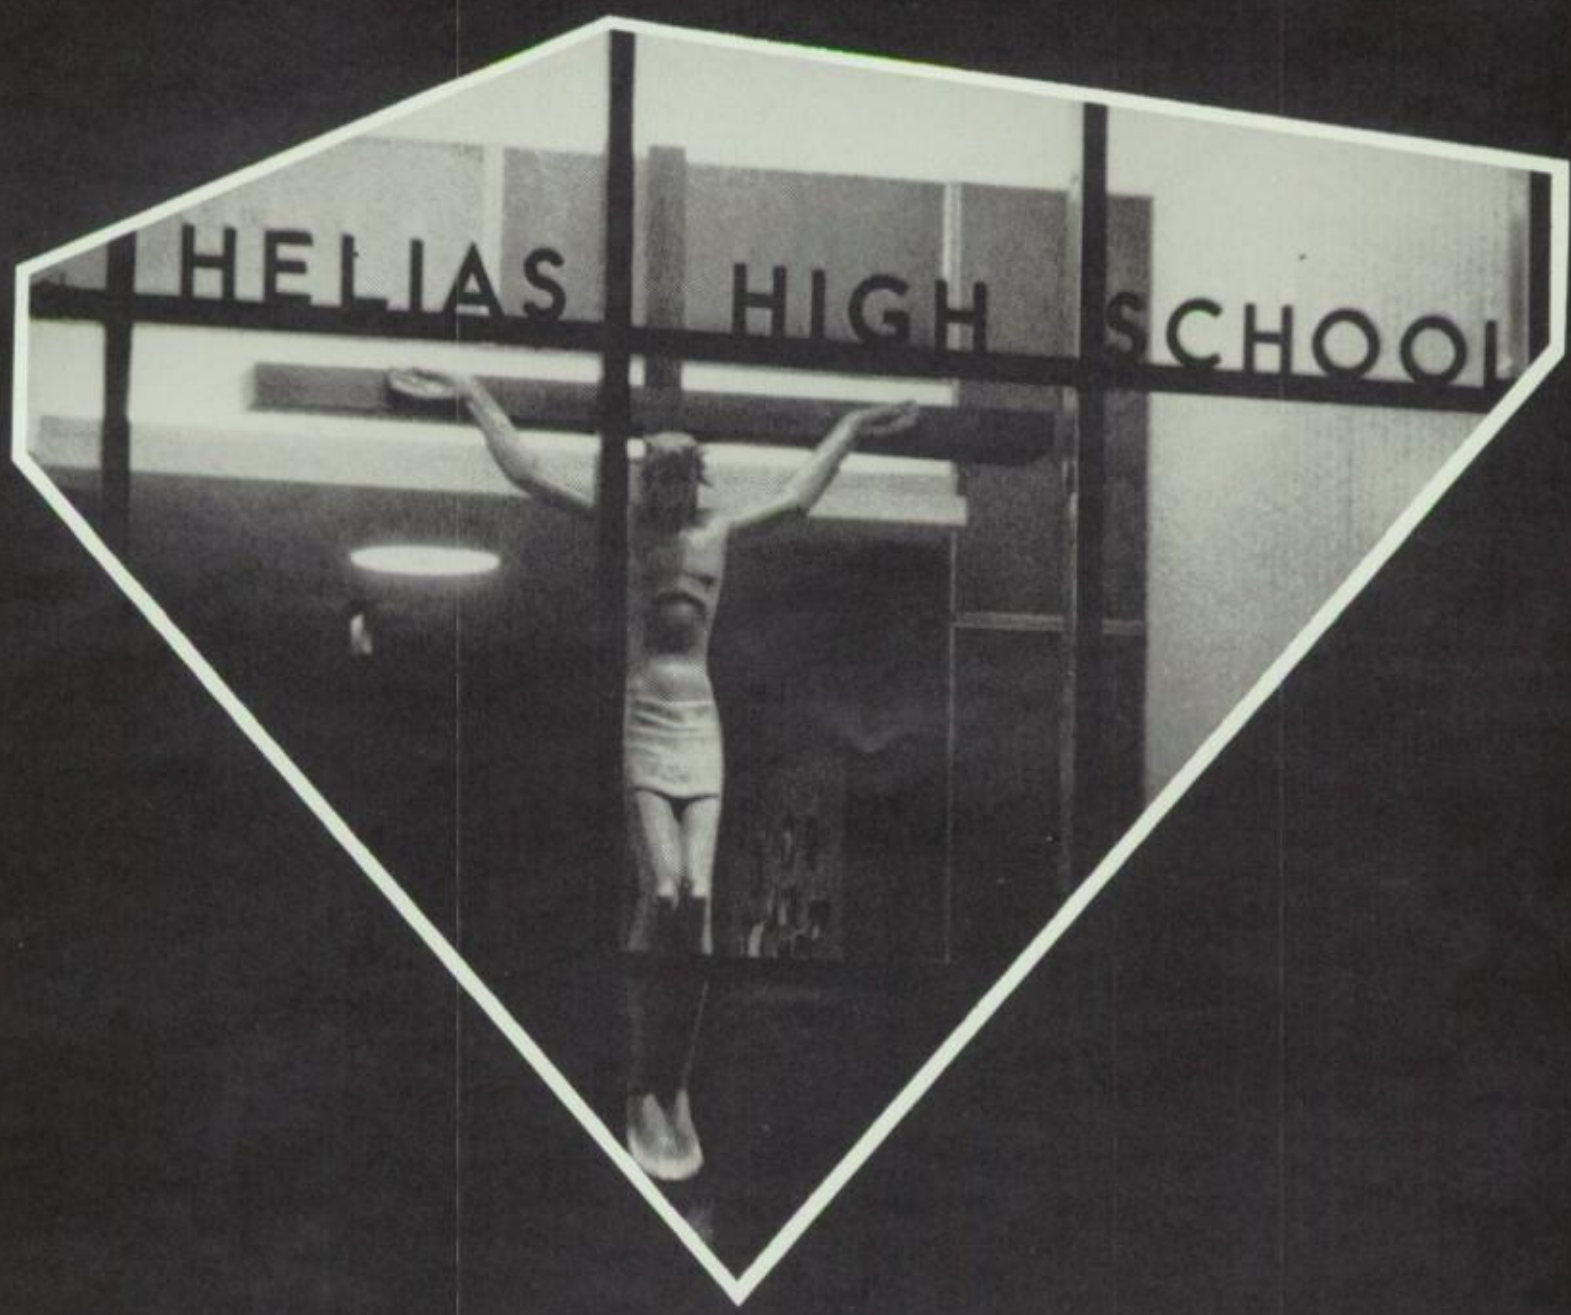
CRUSADER





THE CRUSADER



1964

VOLUME 8

HELIAS HIGH SCHOOL

JEFFERSON CITY, MISSOURI

Dedication

BROTHER TIMOTHY, F.S.C.

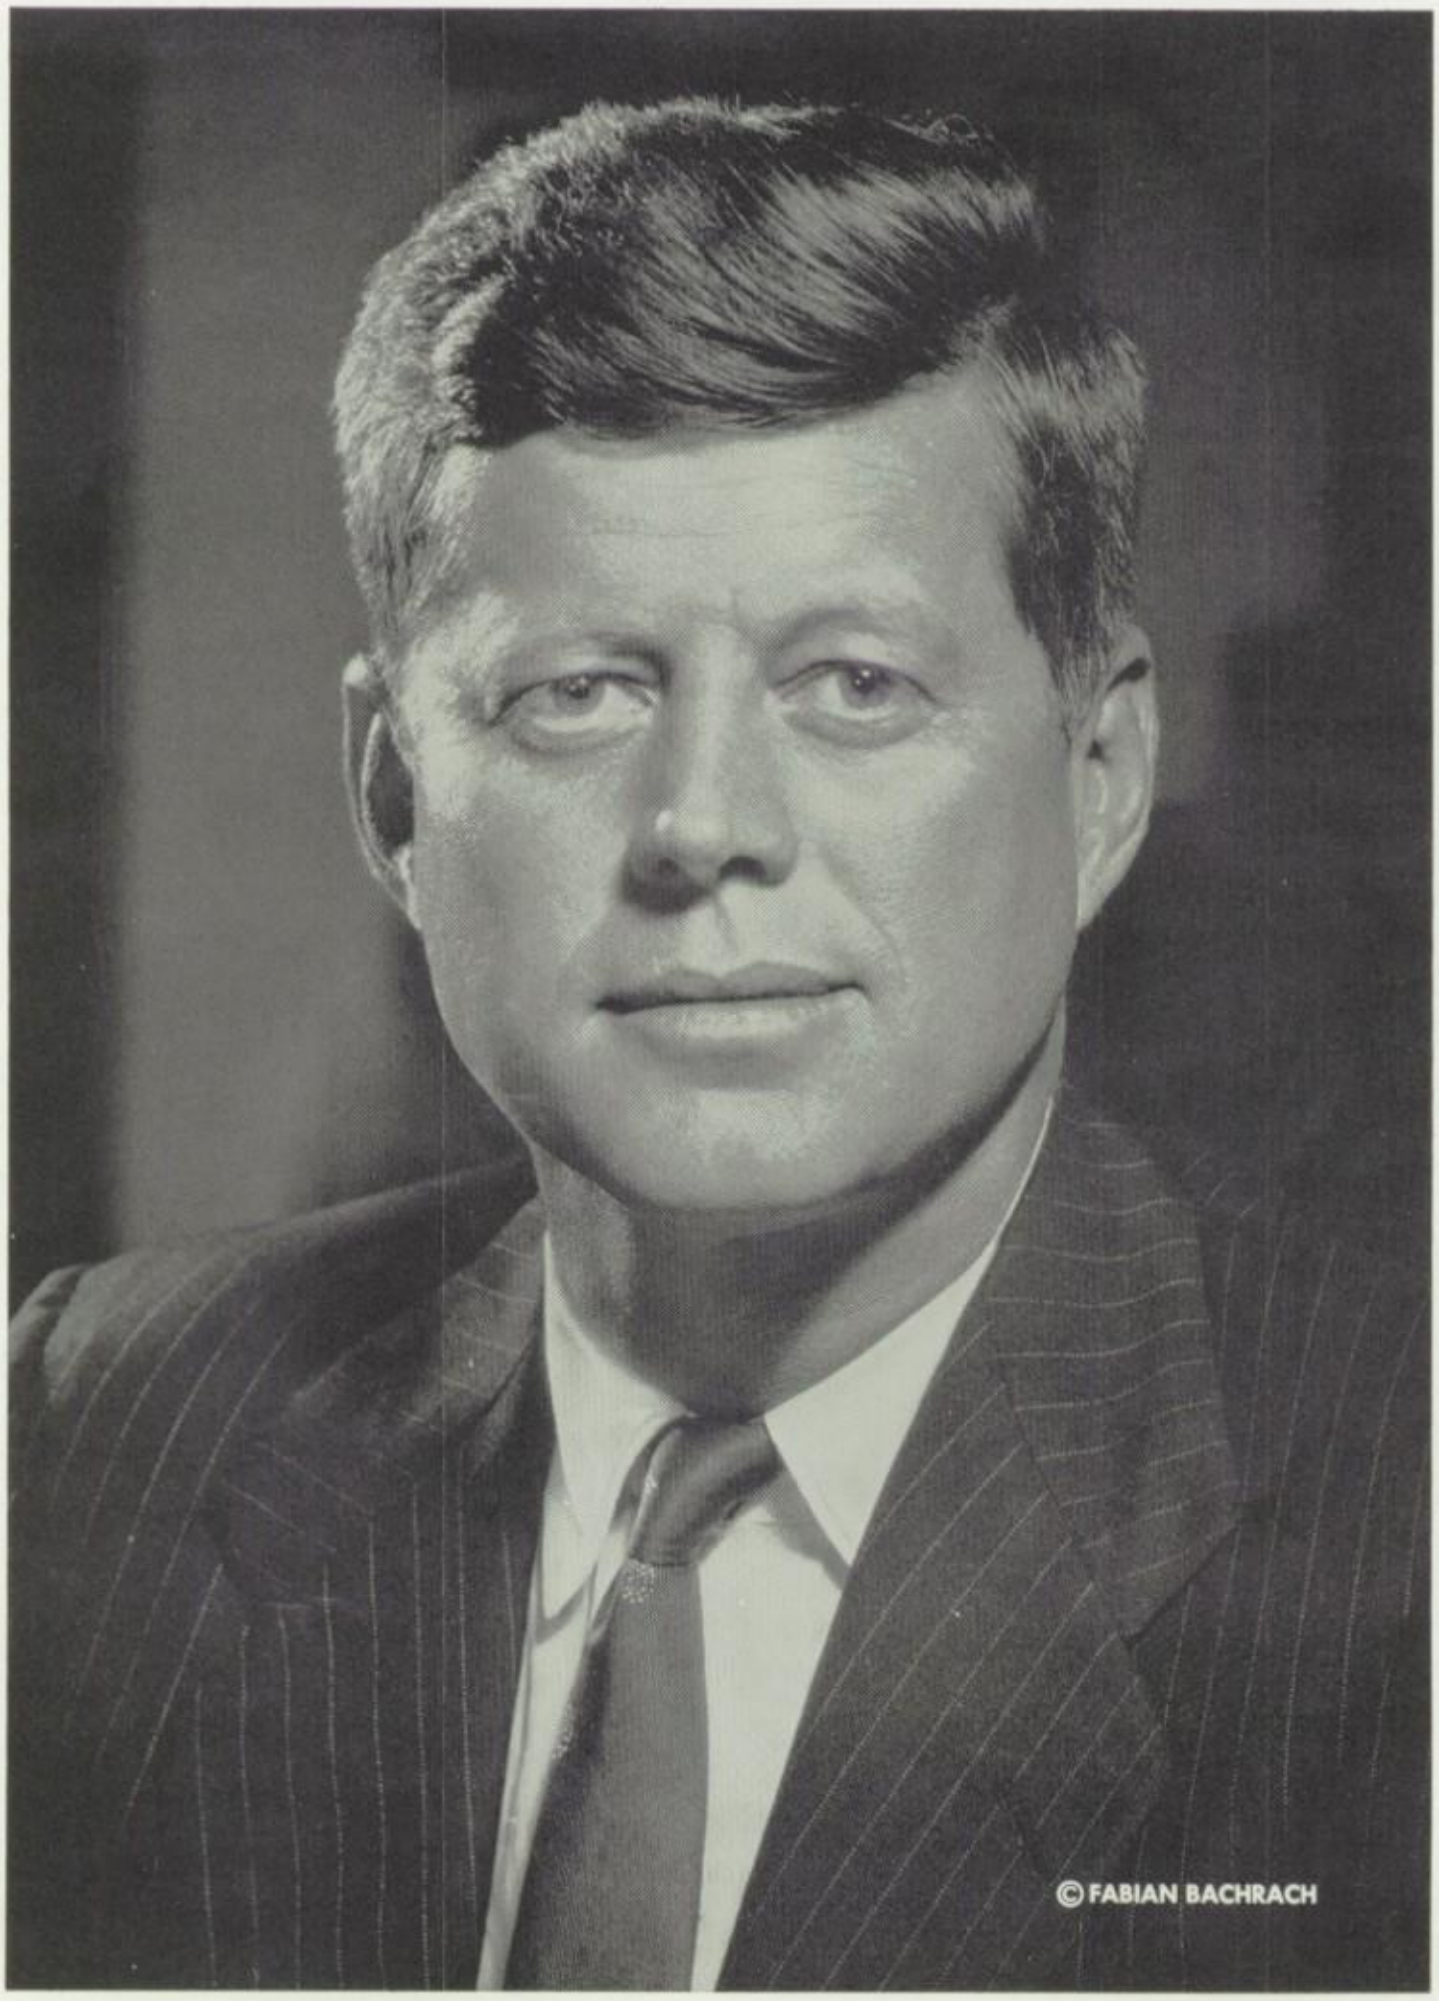
It is most fitting that we dedicate our yearbook to Brother Timothy; he himself was dedicated to a sublime purpose--the spiritual and educational development of his students. This man has given his whole life to the achievement of his goal, and in the words of Christ Himself:

"Greater love than this, no man hath."

In thanks to Brother Timothy for all he has done for students of Helias, we dedicate our 1964 "Crusader" to him.

And the Glow From the Fire

Can Truly Light the World



Principals

SISTER MARY LEA, S.S.N.D.

"So much to be done, and so little time to do it," is not a familiar quote of Sister Lea; for the students never find her too busy to discuss with them their everyday problems and offer friendly advice.

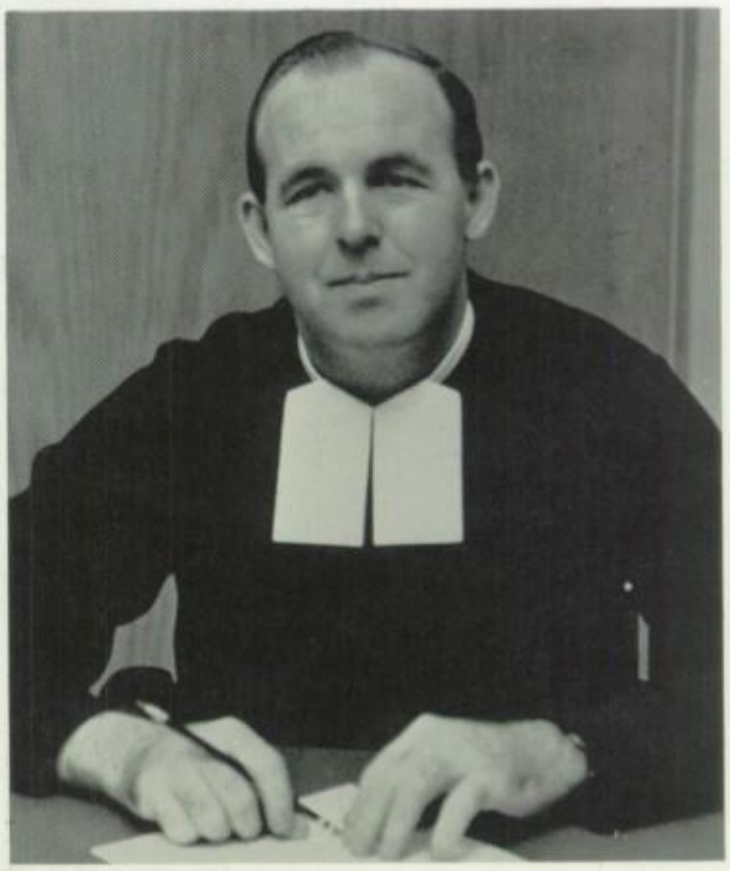
It is because of her qualities of kind understanding, leadership, and dedication that the Helias students admire Sister.

MRS. LEO HIRSCH
Secretary of the Girls' Department

MRS. WM. SEEKER
Secretary of the Boys' Department

BROTHER K. THOMAS, F.S.C.

January - an unexpected change for all - Brother K. Thomas, officially assuming his duties as principal of the Boys' Department, motivated by a firm conviction to better his students, is helping prepare them for their role in modern society by teaching the requirements needed for success in the world today. Imbedding in the students a sense of decency and responsibility is high among his ideals.



Just as Christ, the Head of the Mystical Body, directs and develops His subjects as they strive for knowledge, so the faculty directs the progress of the students' efforts toward a practical Christian Life. In accepting this challenge, the faculty imitates Christ in His role as the Truth.

"Do you understand now?"

HALF MAST

By Janeatte Radmacher

It was on a day when we were unaware
That murder lurked and claimed him there.
His noble blood poured from his wound.
She clutched him as his spirit swooned.
The flag flies now at half mast
Our leader has fallen and now is past.

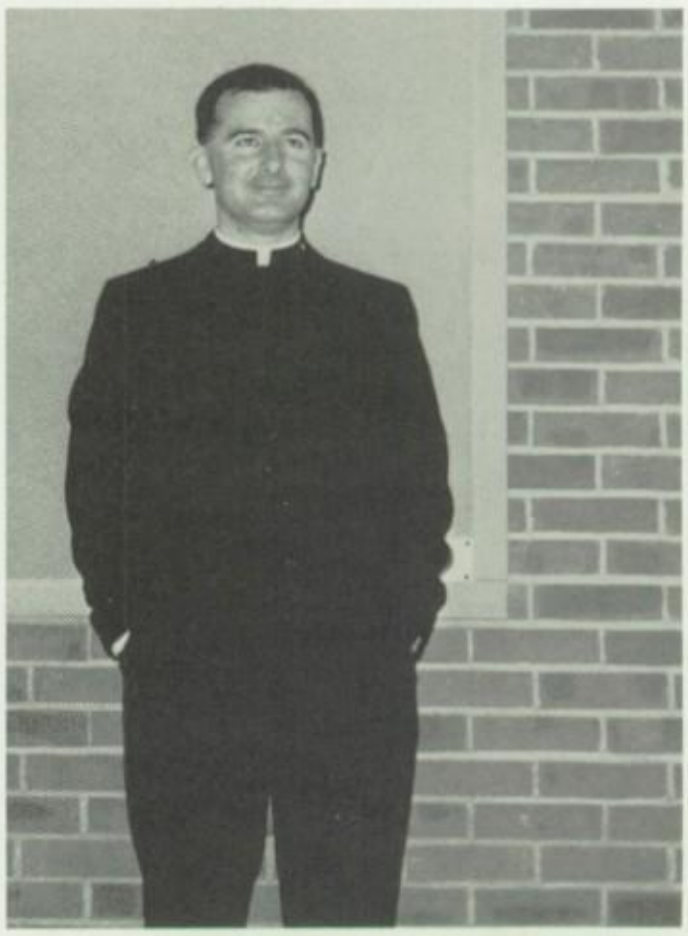
A torch now burns a vigil it will keep
That burns on as the chief does sleep
And lights the place where he lay
A symbol of the nation's tribute to pay.
The flag flies now at half mast
Our leader has fallen and now is past.

SISTER MARY VICTORY, S.S.N.D.

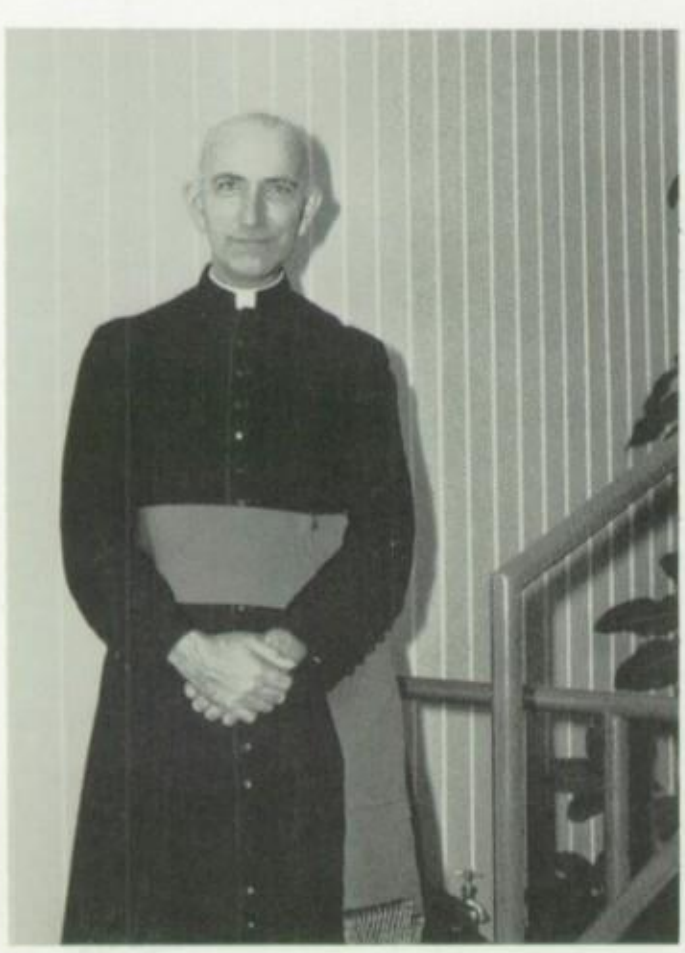
". . . and we can't forget Dallas."

Subjects: Religion IV, American History, Economics, and Sociology. Good Counsel Club, and Guidance Counselor.

To the left: "Teaching Religion to teen-agers is a challenge," agrees Father Cronin and Father Wallace, Sophomore and Freshman Religion instructors.



Below: The Seniors feel confident that Msgr. Kutz will give them ideals for the future.



Above: Weekly Holy Mass, celebrated by Father Long, followed by a few good thoughts for the day is an added feature in the boy's department.

To the right: Father Starmann and Father Ahrens thoughtfully prepare answers to the questions of their Freshman and Junior Religion students.

The Seniors look to Christ for guidance in the performance of their many, demanding tasks, which are a necessary part of every Senior Year.

In his role as the Way, Christ co-ordinates the efforts of all Christians in the perfection of His Mystical Body; so the Seniors strive to unify the efforts of all the students in making Helias the ideal school.

Hawaiian Princess, Carolyn Kolb, places her bouquet at the shrine dedicated to the Blessed Virgin, while her date looks on.

After long hard hours of toil, the Juniors enjoy the Prom.

You can tell by their happy expressions that this group of "prom-goers" are enjoying the majestic "Blue Hawaii."

As the couples enter the make believe "island" they are greeted by the Hawaiian Maidens.

Taking a break between the dances, these couples stop to pose for the camera.
